ROMAN THEATRE OF CARTAGENA

The discovery and excavation of the Roman Theatre of Cartagena is one of the most surprising archaeological finds of the city. Its unique characteristics confirm the important role that the city of Cartagena placed in the history of Ancient Hispania.

CONCEPCIÓN CASTLE

The Centre for Interpretation of de History of Cartagena is located at the Cerro de la Concepcion, one of the five hills that protect the city. The Centre is built on the remains of the castle that shares the same name or, as it is more popularly known Castle of de Ducks, and is now an integral part of the Torres Park. It has great views of the city and the marina.

TOURIST BOAT

From the sea, you get a completely different view of the city of Cartagena. As part of the Cartagena Port of Cultures programme we are pleased to offer the visitor a fascinating experience
