

EIASM Public Sector Emerging Scholars Programme - ESP Preliminary Programme 2024

The Emerging Scholars Programme (ESP) will take place at the Stockholm Business School on September 16th, 2024. This event is only in presence for ESP accepted students. ESP participation is free of charge for accepted students, but they need to be registered for the main conference (16 – 18 September), the 13th International EIASM Public Sector Conference - Public Service Accounting, Accountability And Management.

Emerging scholars are invited to submit a research proposal (including a literature review, research questions and research design). This research proposal may be either the proposal for the full PhD trajectory or one that focuses on a part of it. As such, also the opportunity is provided to discuss ideas about (succeeding) phases of the PhD. Accepted proposals will be presented to an audience of senior colleagues and peers. Participants are asked to be a discussant of another proposal. During the event, different sessions with Editors of high impact journals will be hold.

Submission deadline: 30th May 2024

All times in CET

10,00 Welcome Coffee

Opening session (chair: Deborah Agostino)

10.30 Introduction to the workshop

Plenary session (Chair: Javier García Lacalle)

10,40 Speech by MariaFrancesca Sicilia

11.10 Paper presentations section – part 1 (chair: Deboarh Agostino)

12.50 Plenary session with Editors: Ileana Steccolini and Lee D. Parker (chair: Tjerk Budding)

13.20 Lunch

14.00 Paper presentations – part 2 (chair: Patricia Gomes)

16.00 Workshop Conclusion (ESP members)

Each candidate will shortly introduce her/himself at the start of their own sessions. The submitted paper will be presented during the online workshop (5-10 minutes), followed by comments and suggestions given by a discussant (a fellow participant, see schedule, about 5 minutes), the other participants and the ESP program chairs (in total about 5-10 minutes).