2.2. THE CAMPUS IN PARIS LA DÉFENSE

The vast majority of our continuing education courses take place at ESSEC Executive Education in Paris La Défense.

Small meeting rooms equipped with computers, internet connections, printers and paperboard will enable you to meet on Campus to work on group projects, or finalize your presentations. These rooms can be booked in advance.

There are also virtual workspaces available on the internet, accessible from a distance and designed to provide truly educational links between sessions. Most of our continuing education programs are supplemented with educational portals that are run and enriched by a specialized team on Campus.

Throughout the day, two cafeterias offer tea and coffee free of charge, and various snacks.

The atrium, a large open space at the center of the Campus, provides financial newspapers in English on a daily basis.

Comfortably equipped and decorated with unique works by contemporary artists, the atrium is also a friendly place for participants to meet and mingle.
